The Honorable William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Bill:

Enclosed is a copy of my letter to the Secretary of State in reference to one of my committee staff member's foreign travel.

I would appreciate your specialists

[redacted] briefing Dr. Pillsbury. He holds a top secret security clearance. Of course, I understand that your staff cannot provide operational details to Senate staff who are not on the Senate Intelligence Committee; nevertheless I found that the general background briefings that were provided for Dr. Pillsbury during his previous foreign travel were extremely useful, especially with respect to each nation's perspective of the United States, each nation's general foreign policy strategy and each nation's relationship with the Soviet Union.

Sincerely,

Orrin G. Hatch
Chairman
